MARGARITA... WITH AN E | 16

Tequila Blanco and Cointreau have always been kindred spirits & now they get to hang out with Prince Edward Island blueberries, thyme, honey & lemon juice in this maritime inspired drink created by fella who happens to be from the Maritimes. Convenient? We think so.

Bonus Points if you get the PEI - kindred spirits connection.

GIN GINGER GIMLET | 15

Tanqueray Malacca Gin? Heck Yeah! Inspirations from the Malay Peninsula inspired this clove and pepper gin & we took our inspiration from Audrey Saunders' Gin Mule (Google her, she's awesome!). This drink is super easy with gin, lime, ginger tea & honey.

ELIZABETH ANNE MARIE | 14

The Citadelle Distillery of this French gin survived the attack at Dunkirk & outwitted the French Governments' long past of restrictions for brandy production. Goose is always so good at making us learn stuff while we drink. Add some Aperol, white grape, lemon & honey-ginger cordial. Mmm, Yes, Please!

FROM POLAND, WITH LOVE | 16

Polish Single Estate Rye Vodka from Lake Bartezak and a splash of French amaro from Suedois Dolin. James Bond really should have rethought the location of that fourth film. This drink gets an added kick from a little citrus & a Prince Edward Island Pale Ale. Oh! & Coconut sugar syrup! Can't forget the coconut sugar syrup.

SPARE A SMOKE 'DER, BUD? | 17

Smoky Mezcal and Floral Tequila join forces for this "La Bonita" inspired drink. Passion fruit nectar, agave syrup, fresh lime juice & cucumber make this summer beverage almost authentically Mexican. You might just forget you're in Edmonton, but we love the Y.E.G. So, drink now, travel later.

LIFE'S A BOOCH | 14

Tanqueray Sevilla Gin with Spanish orange & Aperol, an Italian bitter-sweet liqueur, meet with citrus, peach mango juice & some awesome local BooCha! Perfect for boocha lovers & patio conscious people alike. We tried one before, during & after yoga! You can thank Julianna later :) She also teaches yoga.

PIRATES - 2OZ

ROUGE LIPS | 15

Bold Spiced Rum is the Lady GaGa of this show! And with strong supporting roles taken up by fresh strawberries, lemon juice & chai tea, this Star of a Cocktail is Born. Bold in colour, it looks & tastes like candy, for "adults". Bradley Cooper not included.

NORTHERN HOSPITALITY | 14

Southern Comfort, Buffalo Trace Bourbon, a hint of citrus & bruised sugar come together with Dr. Pepper in this patio sipper / crushable treat!

CHAPTER 4 | 15

Bacardi's 4 Year aged rum & apricot liqueur play very nicely with peppermint tea, lemon juice, salt & condensed milk for sweetness. Don't believe us? Ask our friend Stephen Wynne. This drink won him an Irish National Championship.

THE DISAPPOINTING CARLYLE | 15

Kentucky's Bulleit Bourbon & Gin Mare Spanish gin meet together in this head-turning, delicious sipper. Mellowed out with a little help from fresh grapefruit, honey, lemon & basil. It's bright & smooth, with real cocktail chops. Just like our Carlyle. If only he could've picked a name before the print deadline...HAPPY HIPPIE

COLADA | 16

We combine Plantation's Pineapple Rum and Bermuda's legendary Gosling's Black Seal with coconut milk, pineapple juice & turmeric honey-ginger syrup. It's a lot to get your head around, but tons of flavour and so, so, SO patio season! Happy would also like to think that it's Moana's favorite drink. Never grow up, you strange man.

HOMETOWN HERO | 14

Alberta Premium Rye takes the show in this summer fresh & savoury riff on an Old Fashioned. Cocktail bartenders have always loved this hometown spirit. We add rosemary, peppercorn & cardamom to our molasses syrup to compliment the spicy rye.
